

If I want to do business with a company I will find them they do not need to phone my home because I don't do business over the phone. Being on the No Call List has ended dinner interruptions. I no longer have to not answer my phone or have to screen my calls It's like a new life. I say keep the strict laws on the no call list that what it is for the consumer not the businesses.